NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR PROTECTION OF CHILD RIGHTS (NCPCR)

NCPCR is a statutory body constituted under the provisions of the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights (CPCR) Act, 2005 for the protection of child rights.

NCPCR has been mandated to monitor the implementation of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012.

POCSO Act was enacted by the Government of India to protect children from offences of sexual assault, sexual harassment and pornography; while safeguarding the interest of the child at every stage of the judicial process, by incorporating child friendly mechanisms for reporting, recording of evidence, investigation and speedy trial of offences through designated Special Courts.

According to a study on 'Child Abuse-India 2007' by Ministry of Women & Child Development, about 53% of children surveyed, reported having faced one or the other form of sexual abuse. It has been found that in most cases, the offender is a family member/near relative or an acquaintance. The child victim in such cases generally does not report these incidents which may occur repeatedly over a period of time. Sexual abuse scars the psyche of the affected child for the entire life.

POCSO e-box is a major initiative by NCPCR to help children report such crimes directly to the Commission.

FILING COMPLAINT THROUGH
