Return of a minor girl to her home in Surguja District, Chattisgarh (case no. 73354)

An activist of Delhi based NGO, 'My Home India' informed National Commission for Protection of Child Rights in June 2016 about the presence of a girl in an Ashram of Dilshad Garden, New Delhi who could recall her home town and other vital information about her family. NCPCR immediately wrote to DM, Surguja to make necessary arrangements to restore the girl to her parents. The girl is now living with her parents.
