

New Delhi,
September 04, 2017

Justice Madan B. Lokur, Inaugurates Computer Training facility at Observation Home for boys in Conflict with Law at Delhi

A Computer Training Centre in collaboration with Department of Women and Child Development, Government of NCT of Delhi and State Bank of India, for imparting training to children in conflict with law residing in Observation Home for Boys in Delhi, was inaugurated today at Adharshila Observation Home for Boys-II, Sewa Kutir Complex, Kingsway Camp, Delhi.

Judge of the Supreme Court of India, Hon'ble Justice Shri Madan B. Lokur inaugurated the Training Centre. Speaking on the occasion Justice Lokur asked the inmates to take advantage of the facilities including the computer training and sharpen their skills so that they can find those to be useful after they go out of the home. He appreciated the work done by the home authority to have music classes, yoga classes, bakery making classes and now the computer training programme.

Acting Chief Justice of Delhi High Court, Justice Geeta Mittal said, in today's age of computer and smart phones children can learn a lot through internet session.

Chairperson, NCPCR Smt. Stuti Kacker said, acquiring computer skills will empower the boys of home to feel confident. She requested the State Bank of India authorities to open bank account for these children which will help them in their future economic activities.

General Manager of SBI, Sh. Shyam Kishore Agarwal said, they have undertaken a number of similar projects under the CSR activities. He ensured that if there is any need for further assistance his bank will definitely help the boys home for similar activities.

Judges of the High Court, Member of Juvenile Justice Board, Chairperson of Delhi State Commission for Protection of Child Rights Mr. Ramesh Negi, Director, WCD Government of NCT of Delhi Ms. Shilpa Shinde, among others, were present on the occasion.

The boys living in the Observation Home will receive computer training by training personnel hired for the purpose. Computers have been gifted by the State Bank of India for the observation home.

In view of the importance of the computer literacy as a requirement for large number of jobs & education programmes, this initiative will also help inmates of the Observation Home to pickup computer knowledge and skill.

Children in conflict with law find it difficult to assimilate into the society after being released from the observation homes. Often, they are not accepted by their families. They also face difficulties in earning their livelihood.

In the above context, National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) has conceived such training programmes which will be implemented gradually in other parts of the Country.

Justice Madan B. Lokur, Supreme Court of India going round the computer training facility at Adharshila Observation Home for Boys in Conflict with Law after Inaugurating it.