It is submitted that the committee had circulated the concept note (along with Hague convention, Draft Child abduction Bill 2016 and Law commission draft as annexures) on the various websites as agreed upon by all the members. In response to the same, comments have been sent via e-mail to the undersigned, by individuals as well as stake holder organizations. The comments have been compiled in to a tabulated format. The tabulated comments as well as original e-mails (as annexures) have been circulated to all the esteemed members of the committee, after taking approval from your goodself. Since the committee will now start holding meetings to take the task forward, it is requested that we may host a notice/information regarding the same, requesting the general public to keep checking following websites for further information:

Ministry of Women and Child,

Ministry of External Affairs,

National Commission for Women,

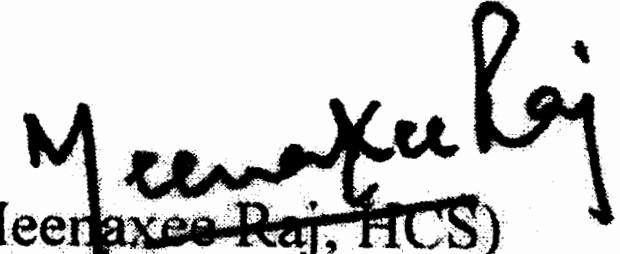

National Commission for Protection of Child Rights,

Punjab State NRI Commission,

Chandigarh-Judicial Academy

National Judicial Academy

If agreed, may kindly approve the above proposal, and may also approve the draft of the notice overleaf.
