

Hindustan Times

Delhi, 17.03.2014, Page-7

Add child rights protection to manifestos: NCP CR

NEW DELHI: The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCP CR) has written to political parties asking them to include a chapter in their election manifestos on protection of rights of children. "Children's right to free, protection of children from sexual offences, elimination of child labour are certain areas which needs to be addressed," Kushal Singh, NCP CR chairperson, wrote to heads of Congress, BJP and BSP.

